"Oh The Things I Have Seen" is a song about life and each verse describes real events in Jon's life or events that he witnessed personally. Jon says he wanted to write a story about the craziness of existence while comforting the listener that no matter how wild it may get, "This isn't the End".

In a lucky turn of events, Jon was recording at Melody Mountain Studios during the Rhymes and Vines Festival north of Stephenville and was able to recruit some very talented artists to add harmony vocals. Mike McClure, Randall King, Kaitlin Butts, Kensie Coppin, and Brandon Adams are voices you'll recognize on "Oh The Things I Have Seen".

"Jon Young is an artist in every definition of the word. I hope everyone gets the opportunity to experience how talented he is."
